Thanks

Many of the ideas in Course Design have come about through our individual experiences gained from teaching in master's degree and workshop programs for people in both ESL and EFL settings. We acknowledge the inspiration, stimulation, and feedback which our students at the University of Southern California, the University of British Columbia, Tel-Aviv University, and Harvard University gave us when these chapters were in their developmental stages.

In addition, we acknowledge with gratitude the insightful comments and suggestions on the first draft of the manuscript of 1983 given us by Marianne Celce-Murcia, Lola Katz, Shirley Ostler and Kari Smith, which led us to this final version in January 1985. Ahsile Nibud extended expert graphics counsel in the preparation of the diagrams.
