

Most humbly Inscribed
To the Rt Hon^{ble} SIR CHARLES WAGER, first Lord Commissioner of the Admiralty
THIS PLAN
Of the Harbour, Town, and Several Forts, of CARTAGENA.

In which is Exhibited a Perfect VIEW of the English Fleet, as they Anchored all along the Coast, in the Bay, near the Town, and also after they moved and laid under the Forts of S^t. Jago, and S^t. Philippe, and at the Boca chica, or Mouth of the Harbour: Likewise of the English Ships as they moved in different parts in the Harbour, in order to lay Siege to the Town.

This Plan, I do affirm to be the only true Copy of the Draught brought over by me to show the different Armaments of the Majorities Fleet, laid before the Regency, & the Lords of the Admiralty.
